When planning your wedding, you may feel overwhelmed with the choices of wedding hairstyles for your special day. The choices are endless, from elegant updos to braids and long flowing tresses. Here is a guide to help you plan your wedding hairstyle.

The Updo

This is the classic wedding day style. Formal and elegant, there are so many ways to sweep your hair up into this lovely hairstyle. The updo complements most headpieces and veils, and can be worn in both formal and informal weddings. If your hair is short, add Indian hair extensions for added length.

Clip in hair extensions can be used to complete the look. Even women with round faces can wear the updo. A modified version of the updo with a few loose tendrils will frame your face and give you a gorgeous and glamorous look. Accent your updo with pearl tipped hairpins, clips, flowers and combs for added pizzazz.

Short and Spiky

For a dramatic look on your big day, choose a short and spiky look for your wedding hairstyle. Add in a touch of color with Indian Remy clip in extensions for high drama. If you have long hair but want a short wedding day style, try a Indian hair weave. These hair extensions can be parted, cut, curled and styled just as you would your natural hair.

Short and spiky styles work best for indoor weddings or weddings in cooler months. Humidity and moisture can ruin this style, so make sure to take your photographs while your style is still fresh.

Long and Flowing

The most versatile of bridal hairstyles, long and flowing locks are feminine and demure. A fusion hair extensions will give you the most natural look. These hair extensions are created by attaching human hair extensions to the ends of your natural hair with a special adhesive. Fusion weaves can be pulled into an updo or a high ponytail, braided or curled. Their versatility make them perfect for the transition from ceremony to reception to honeymoon. With proper maintenance, you can even enjoy your wedding hairstyle up to your first anniversary. Indian Remy extensions have been known to last one year or longer on one application.

Want a celebrity look for your wedding day? Try a full lace wig. These realistic wigs are applied to your natural hairline and are virtually indistinguishable from your natural hair. Their lace underlay make them appear as though the strands are growing directly from your scalp. This is ideal for your photography sessions that will capture every detail of your wedding day style.

Finding the right man to marry can be difficult. Finding the right style for your wedding day shouldn"t be. By choosing the right look to complement your wedding style, you will look like a star on your wedding day.
